Participation Agreement

We're glad you have chosen to join Seattle Music Partners. We look forward to getting to know you! We want each student to have a positive experience as part of our free program. To succeed at the highest level, every family must agree to the following:

In Seattle Music Partners we will be:

- Safe with our instruments, each other, all students, staff, and special guests.
- Respectful of ourselves, each other, all students, staff, special guests, and school property.
- Responsible for our behavior within rehearsals and sectionals, and with our instruments, music, and accessories.
- Persistent and Focused during our music lessons and home practice time to improve on our instruments.
- Creative and brave in all music lessons, rehearsals, and performances.

Parents:

- I give my consent for my student to participate in SMP's Middle School Music Project
- I understand that my student may receive music instruction from a college or community volunteer.
- Poor attendance or failure to rehearse, cooperate, follow rules, or behave properly will be cause for dismissal from MSMP at the staff's discretion.
- I give permission for my student to receive snacks, treats, or other prizes during MSMP sessions.
- I/we understand that transportation to/from MSMP is not provided by the Seattle Music Partners and that prompt pick-up or transportation arrangements at 7:50pm is essential for all students and staff.
